• New Business

- 6th Grade Fundraiser- Mel presented the idea of the 6th grade class accepting recycle donations on set days/times. The club saw no issue with this fundraiser. It was decided that nothing was really needed from the MVP Club at this point and Mel will coordinate the details with site admin and teachers.
- Holiday Giving- Mel presented an idea to purchase food or other goods for students in need. She would like to have some site funds go towards it and then she has a community member in mind to match the contribution. After discussion it was decided that it is too late to do this for Thanksgiving, but we could do it for Christmas. Maggie motioned to approve up to $100 for this endeavor, Willow 2nd. Unanimously approved. Mel will work with staff to identify families and needs.
- Superbowl Fundraiser- After discussion, it was decided that we would not pursue this fundraiser this year due to COVID-19 restrictions and worries.
- MVP Club meeting report- Mel summarized the All-Site meeting to those present. Maggie gave the Quincy site financials.

• Fundraising / Event Planning

- Face Mask Fundraiser— No final update was available but Maggie and Mandi reported that the fundraiser went well. A report out will be available next meeting.
- Fundraising Ideas/Funds Needed-- Sierra suggested that MVP Club sign up for Amazon Smile. Members present agreed that was a great idea. Quincy funds are running low, so we do need to come up with fundraising ideas in the near future.

• Unfinished Business & Announcements

- Parent Appreciation-- Mel talked again about how the K-6 staff really want to thank the parents. Willow will talk to the Vaughn's about accepting digital coupons from MVP on Black Friday.
- Senior Goody Bags-- Maggie asked for $275 from site funds to spend on senior goody bags for Winter break. Mandi motioned to approve, Willow 2nd. Unanimously approved.
 - Known Items for next meeting:
